Stone Creek Stables

At Stone Creek Stables we teach “Saddleseat” style riding. This uses an English type saddle and is a classic, balanced style which requires a great deal of discipline and offers a solid foundation for any other equestrian style.

Safety is paramount at Stone Creek Stables and our goal is to maximize the comfort and enjoyment of each student. Therefore, all new students in our program start with private lessons to receive the benefit of individual, personalized attention.
